

Louis Fischer, Gandhi Sympathizer, Will Present Lecture On India February 23 In Morris Dailey

Louis Fischer, one of the few writers who sympathize with Mahatma Gandhi's stand on India, will present "The Riddle of India", one of the first in a series of three lectures to be given at San Jose State college in the Morris Dailey auditorium beginning on the evening of February 23.

Mr. Fischer, a renowned journalist and war correspondent, spent one week in daily contact with Gandhi and there engaged in long discussions of politics.

In his lecture here, Mr. Fischer will report on his talks with Gandhi and his arguments with him on various political questions arising out of the present crisis. Mr. Fischer is convinced that an effective compromise can be worked out providing the British will give the Indian leaders nominal political control of their country. The British and the United Nations, he quoted Gandhi as having told him, keep military control of the country, keep control of supply routes, ports and other such services and areas essential to the conduct of the war. The Indians will insist to the end, he believes, upon the British cession to them of nominal political control now rather than at the end of the war.

Tickets for the three-lecture series are on sale for $1.10. However, Dean Pitman stated that those who think that they will be called into the service before the conclusion of the lectures, which will end on March 31, may hear Louis Fischer next Tuesday evening for 50 cents with a student body card.

The other two lectures will include Joseph James in an unusual lecture on "Negro Folk-Music". Mr. James will discuss the various types of Negro folk song and their place in American music, illustrating with representative songs from each group.

Madame Barzin will conclude the lecture series, speaking on "Youth in the Crushed Democracies".

JUNIOR PROM BIDS ON SALE, SAYS PRESIDENT

Saturday evening marks a most memorable occasion for every junior at San Jose State college, announces Class President Earl Poytress.

Students planning to attend the Junior Prom at the Scottish Rite Temple from 9 to 1 should get their bids now from any member of the Junior class council or in the Controller's office, Lois Bohnett, bid chairman, stated. They are selling for $1.75.

Joseph Chaddock and his famous 125th Infantry swing-sweet band will be on hand to give juniors "the swing time of their life," promised Music Chairman Jeanne Wright and Special Service Officer Lieutenant Edward P. DeVreugd. Variation in the numbers offered by the band will set a "military mood".

"Salute to Spring" is the theme chosen by the Decorations committee. Merchants of San Jose have joined in the drive with the Decorations committee that will turn the Scottish Rite Temple into a Shangri-La for the evening. Contributions of window decorations of greenery, palms, and flowers with lighting effects of innumerable colors will add to the evening's ecstasy, Marge Bone, decorations chairman, said.

BULLETIN

Contradicting reports issued last week and at yesterday's assembly, Dean of Men Paul Pitman late yesterday received "fairly authentic" word from the National Council on Education that deferred Army Air Corps men will stay in school until the end of this quarter. The council's report read as follows:

"Army air force enlisted reservists between now and April 1. A large contingent will be requested to report between February 15 and 20. College students will be permitted to complete the quarter or semester in which they were enrolled December 31, 1942."

Women's Executive Council Meets

Officers Of WAVES, Naval Nurses' Corps To Speak Today

Lieutenant Tova Peterson of the WAVES, and Ensign Joan Meyers of the Naval Nurses' Corps, will speak to all women students this morning at 11 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Faculty members were asked by Dr. MacQuarrie to excuse all girls from their 11 o'clock classes in order to give every girl an opportunity to hear these profitable speeches.

Girls interested in joining WAVES or Navy Nurses may get interviews with Lt. Peterson or Ensign Meyer at 1:00 today in Miss Dimmick's office.

Personal interviews with Lieutenant Peterson and Ensign Meyers will be granted to all interested students at 1 p.m. in the Dean of Women's office, says Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women. Arrangements for the interviews (Continued on page 4)

AWA Nominates For Cabinet Today

Fifteen members will be nominated for the new AWA cabinet during an executive council meeting of the present cabinet in the AWA room at 2 o'clock today.

Further nominations may be made at a regular meeting of the organization tomorrow at 4 o'clock when all women students are invited to take part from the floor. Freshmen girls are also eligible to hold offices if they have done outstanding work during the year.

The cabinet is composed of 16 members, of which there are to be six women selected for service, five for social, and five for recreation. Additional members for service has necessitated taking care of numerous Red Cross duties.

All officers, to be elected next week, will maintain their positions for a school year.

The council now consists of President Jeanette Abbot, Vice-President Elsa Anderson, Secretary Jane Reed, Corresponding Secretary Myrtle Peters, and Treasurer Marge Behrman.

Delta Beta Sigma Sponsors Campus Bond Drive Here

A record sale of defense stamps and bonds is the goal of Delta Beta Sigma when the on-campus sorority sponsors a bond drive tomorrow. Representatives of the sorority will be stationed at a booth in the quad during every hour of the day from 9:00 to 4:00.

"Those who desire bonds of smaller amounts will bring their money to school; certificates will be filled out and the bonds mailed to them. Larger bonds should be purchased through the post office or some other bond station with a member of Delta Beta Sigma present, so that the sorority can receive credit for the sale of the bonds," stated Glenna Anderson, chairman of the drive.

All-Star Chorus Rehearsing For 1943 Revelries

By PAT LOOMIS

An all-star chorus comprised of 21 coeds will play a big part in the 1943 Spartan Revelries show "Jest Among Ourselves", to go on the boards for a two-night run February 26 and 27.

Members of the chorus range from five feet to five feet seven inches in height. Rehearsals of the four numbers in the show are being held every night.

The opening dance routine is made up of plenty of high kicks, Chorus Director Jeanette Owen says, and is a fast, peppy number using original music.

The second number is a cowboy tap-routine in which the chorus is attired in appropriate cowboy outfits. This is the only number in which the music is not original. However, Miss Owen says, the chorus sings original words written especially for Revelries.

A surprise is in store for the audience in the third number by the chorus, which is a rumba. Director Owen is keeping whatever the surprise is "under her hat" but promises something stupendous.

STATUS OF RESERVISTS TOLD BY DEAN PAUL PITMAN YESTERDAY

Speaking for perhaps the last time to many men of the college, Dean of Men Paul Pitman yesterday addressed Spartan reservists and potential draftees in the Morris Dailey auditorium regarding their present status as students and future status as servicemen.

Reviewing the future for men in the several reserve programs, Dean Pitman told Army Air Corps men that they can expect their first notice telling them to stand by for orders within the next few days or weeks. He urged them not to slack off in school work but to "either keep punching your hardest or quit college."

"Enlisted Reserve Corps men will be in the same boat as draftees when they report at the Monterey induction center," stated Dean Pitman. "The following factors will determine where the ERC man or draftee will placed in the Army:

1. The individual's choice.
2. The individual's scholastic record.
3. The individual's past work.
4. The individual's Army test scores.
5. The individual's aptitude as determined by the classifier.
6. The Army's need.

Navy V-1 and V-7 men and Marine Corps reservists will be kept in their present status in college until July, according to Pitman.

Men going into the Army soon were urged to stay in college as long as possible, withdraw officially, apply for partial credit, prepare affidavits, have photostatic copies of grades made official, examine war prisoners' rights, and when in the Army to take out insurance and secure statements of military experience to be honored by colleges for units after the war.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR H. F. MINSEN FRIDAY AT 11

Besides officially founding the "Herman F. Minszen Memorial Fund," a faculty committee yesterday decided to conduct memorial services for the late college vice-president next Friday morning at 11 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Classes will be cancelled for the memorial services.

Purpose of the fund will be the financial and cultural benefit of San Jose State college students, through scholarships, student loans, health measures, and similar enterprises.

Dr. Karl Hazeltine, professor of nature study, heads the fund committee.

Action on the proposed re-naming of Spartan Stadium or the Men's gym in honor of Mr. Minszen has been dropped. Because of the late vice-president's extensive interest in student affairs, the fund was considered the most suitable memorial, according to Dean of Women Helen Dimmick, committee member.

Others on the committee are Upper Division Dean James C. DeVoss, Lower Division Dean J. C. Elder, Dean of Men Paul Pitman, Controller E. S. Thompson; Marge Behrman, student body representative; Miss Dolores Freitas, journalism department head, and President T. W. MacQuarrie.

Student contributions to the fund should go to Mr. Pitman, Miss Dimmick, or Marge Behrman. Faculty donations will be accepted by Dr. Elder, and Dr. DeVoss will receive alumni contributions. Donations from the general public should go to Mr. Thompson.

Chance For Women

Attention, coeds!

So your brother is in the service . . . your boy friend is leaving soon for the Navy . . . and the Smith boys from down the street are already at Guadalcanal.

Makes you feel rather useless, doesn't it? As if you are not doing anything to help win the war, while others around you are doing everything.

Well, you, too, can get in there and do your part.

Every day we hear more about the women's service groups and the important part they are playing in this war . . . today we'll get first-hand information about the WAVES and the Naval Nurses' Corps when Lieut. Tova Peterson and Ensign Joan Meyers speak in the Morris Dailey Auditorium.

The groups represented by these two officers are doing more and more work in this country that will release our men from desk jobs, enabling them to get out in the battle fronts.

Success of women volunteer corps in the Navy has been proven in the fact that the original quota of entries has been doubled in the last few weeks, so that many more women can enlist in this necessary branch of the Navy.

If there is one particular field in which you are interested, you can undoubtedly find it in the WAVES. By following it as a member of this organization, you can gain invaluable experience, and, at the same time, do your part to smash the Axis.

So if you envy your brother, your boy friend, and the Smith boys their ability to get out and fight the enemy, remember that you, too, can do it . . . join the WAVES and fight in that capacity until there is no longer a need to fight! —Reynolds.

Spartans In The Fight

By Bob Pope

After the inspiring talk from Dean Paul M. Pitman to the Reservists yesterday I can more fully appreciate this letter from a former Spartan in the Army Air Corps, who is now on one of the battlefields somewhere. Obviously there is no information regarding his whereabouts, but his A.P.O. address may be had by inquiring at the Spartan Daily office. The letter contains a matter-of-fact description of the hardships suffered by our fighting men, but certainly shows no hint of complaint.

"One of the biggest thrills I've received in a long time was to get those letters from all of you. Out here we wait for the plane to come in which brings our mail; it's one of the highlights when it comes.

"We are very busy out here most of the time, but there are times when nature takes a hand in things and keeps everybody on the ground. I still have quite a limp in my leg but I manage to keep her flying, anyway.

"I'm glad to hear that everything is going on a fairly even keel despite the war. Sometimes I feel as if I'm getting a different outlook on life when one looks arounds and see that to some it means so much and to others so little. We work toward the end of 'you get him or he'll get you.'

"I'll tell you right now I won't be, and so far haven't been on the receiving end of things.

"I guess you wonder what we do for entertainment. Well, sometimes if we past the barbed wire we go fishing or swimming, but the biggest entertainment in our squadron is listening to recordings of the classics. You know, the 'Three B's,' etc., and playing poker. Wars can really do funny things. I actually like that sort of music. I can still listen to the beat - you - down-and-drag-'em-out records without flinching. Wonder what the 'long-haired' boys would think of us 'way out here in the mud mixing up classics and swing!

"It doesn't seem so long ago that I was there... Just a little over a year now... When this mess is all cleaned up I'll be back... I guess I'll have all kinds of tales to tell you; some sad, some funny, and some just stories.

"You will never meet a nicer group of fellows than those in my squadron. We live in little shacks which often leak but still no one grumbles, and, Lord knows, we have a long day, and people like dry beds.

"Your friend,
"Johnnie,"
Lt. John Allen, Jr."

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By T. W. MacQUARRIE

Those who knew Mr. Minssen most intimately seemed to believe that a fitting memorial for him should take the form of a fund for scholarships and loans to students.

Scholarships and loans were a deep personal interest with Mr. Minssen. He had his big department to manage, his own classes to meet daily, the student body funds to supervise, and many other important interests, but the scholarships and loans were nearest his heart.

Those funds he conserved and developed with meticulous care. Every cent he could scrape up from donations, dividends, interest, sales, and pick-ups here and there, he added to his capital amounts. He invested those funds carefully, and when the day came that he was able to hand certain scholarship checks to the selected students, that was the highlight of his year.

Mr. Minssen knew personally every scholarship student. He was always enthusiastic over them. Every one was the best yet, good in his studies, good personality, good character, a good prospect. Scholarships and loans were always a first interest with him. I feel sure that a memorial fund to carry on the work would be the most suitable form our desire to remember him could take.

In this I am reflecting the unanimous opinion of a faculty committee which met last Thursday afternoon to discuss the matter. It was there suggested that we use the name "Herman F. Minssen Memorial Fund". A committee consisting of Dr. Hazeltine, as chairman, the four deans of the college and the president of the student body as members, was set up to work out the details and administer the fund. That committee has already had one meeting and will no doubt make a public announcement of its plans very soon.

WHAT'S FRESNO GOT WE HAVEN'T?

"What the hell has Fresno State college got that San Jose State hasn't?" was the prevalent question shot about when it was learned that Fresno is to be one of the training centers for the Women's Auxiliary Army Corps. We get 400 or 500 Air Corps cadets; how do ya like that!

Of course, you can guess that this little story was concocted by a male reporter, but just the same we don't like it. We thought Fresno State was wacky but we didn't think they were that WAACy. We hope the Fresno coeds get self-conscious seeing the WAAC's in uniform.

Personally, we SJS men think that we could handle 400 WAAC's or even 400 WAVES just as well as Fresno. Maybe the coeds have a different outlook on the situation.

Incidentally, fellows, the Army Air Corps cadets have to be in at 10 p.m.!

Not a weather report, but we did all our journalism work, including this space filler, out on the lawn yesterday afternoon. We moved Betsy (our trusty typewriter), a table and chair outside the Publications office and absorbed what there was to absorb and enjoyed the smell of the new mown lawn . . . In the coincidence department comes this little tid-bit: Arilee Hansen celebrated her birthday last Saturday night, February 13. Her date was Jim Pollard of the Coast Guard. Pollard, in the Coast Guard-San Francisco U. game, scored 13 points the first half and 13 points in the second half. Oh, yes, the Coast Guard won 55 to 35. . .

Our nominee for best attendance at Spartan Sports events—Mary George Co-op house . . . One week from tomorrow and the 1943 basketball season will be over . . . Bert Robinson walking across the quad with three campus beauties waving and crying "Good-bye, cutie!" . . . The same individual and our esteemed co-worker, Charles Cook, bringing a steak to Roy Diederichsen convalescing in the Health Cottage . . .

Come to think of it—I wonder if that had anything to do with Mr. Cook having to spend yesterday in the Health Cottage! . . . Dee Portal extending congratulations to boxing team for victory over Stanford two days before meet took place . . . This in letter received yesterday by Brent Riley.

Here is complete letter written Tuesday, February 9:
Dear Team:

Please accept my congratulations now for your victory over Stanford university. Although I am writing this letter two days before this meet is scheduled to be held, I have great confidence in each of you to perform to your maximum under pressure. I certainly wish I could have been with you fellows to share the thrill of that first Stanford victory.

As ex-boxing coach of San Jose State college, I have had the privilege of working with some excellent teams, and I have had the opportunity of knowing intimately some wonderful men. Although you fellows are comparatively inexperienced, you have the individual and collective qualities of greatness. Potentially you are the greatest boxing team I have ever been associated with. I hope you will make this possibility a reality. Hard work, self-sacrifice, and diligent study and drill will bring you to the top—there is no substitute.

In 1941 and '42 San Jose State college was undefeated in dual competition. In 1943 we had the best dual record in the United States. You fellows now are in a position to make boxing history. I hope no one of you will let yourselves or our teammates down in the meets to come.

Bud, Herb Hudson, and I have enjoyed our trip thus far. We have just finished a strenuous session of calisthenics. From what we can learn, the powers that be at Chapel Hill really put us through the works. I guess we will be like fraternity pledges running on hopeless errands and responding to impossible nautical terms that can only be learned the hard way.

If any of you get time, I would like to hear from you and how you are doing. I will try to answer, and if I don't, you will know it is because they have the heat on.

A team mate,

"Dee."

Just a few more days, and those lucky PEV boys will get to try the obstacle course now nearing completion.

CHALLENGE SANTA BARBARA STATE TONIGHT, TOMORROW NIGHT; ALSO MEET OCCIDENTAL, PEPPERDINE

By SEBASTIAN SQUATRITO

With hopes high and with their fingers crossed, 10 varsity cagers headed by Coach Ed Blesh take the Daylight this morning headed for southern California and four games this week. First stop will be at Santa Barbara where the Spartans tangle with the Gauchos for a two-game series tonight and tomorrow night.

Our favorite team will then head for Occidental, where they will battle the Occidental Tiger Friday night. Winding up the trip, the San Joseans will then hole up in Los Angeles for a tussle with the George Pepperdine quintet.

Pleased with the team's performance last Saturday, Coach Blesh is confident that the Spartans will at least break even in the four games this week. Extremely satisfying to the quiet Washington Square casaba mentor was the performance of the unit that started the second half against Nevada Saturday, composed of Wayne Staley and Elwood Clark at guards, Cas Breuer and Willie Gamboa at forwards, and Pete Filice at center. This outfit held the Wolfpack to a lone point while running up 22 in the first 11 minutes of that half.

Staley, a third-stringer up to then, showed that he'll be of more help to the Spartans on the trip than was at first expected. Clark, a center, played the guard position for the first time and used his height to good advantage.

Regular Roy Diederichsen, who missed the second game because of an ankle sprain suffered in the first contest, will probably be ready by tonight.

If Diederichsen is unable to play, Clark may see more action at the guard spot, and Marvin Zemanek will relieve Filice at the pivot post. The jump spot will not be new to Zemanek, having played it last year and early this season.

Those making the trip are: Forwards, Cas Breuer, Willie Gamboa, Boy Taylor, and Marvin Zemanek; guards Roy Diederichsen, Captain Bert Robinson, Hal Sonntag and Wayne Staley; centers Pete Filice and Elwood Clark; Coach Blesh and Manager Don Ashby.

Sport Schedule

Sports action will take place on many fronts this week with the following events scheduled:

TUESDAY: San Jose State college basketball team versus Santa Barbara State college at Santa Barbara.

WEDNESDAY: San Jose State college basketball team versus Santa Barbara State at Santa Barbara.

San Jose State Jayvee basketball team versus Exchange Linen in gym at 8 o'clock. Frosh versus San Jose Merchants at 6:30 p.m. Swimming team versus Olympic Club in San Francisco at 8 o'clock.

THURSDAY: Boxing matches with Mather Field Flyers at Sacramento.

FRIDAY: Basketball: San Jose State versus Occidental at Occidental. Jayvees versus Treasure Island Armored Guards in gym at 8 o'clock. Frosh preliminary at 6:30.

SATURDAY: Basketball: San Jose State versus George Pepperdine at Los Angeles.

Lanyon Starts Baseball Practice

With the warm weather has come some much needed practice for State's baseballers. Coach Lanyon has been able to look over most of the prospects and line up some sort of a team.

The pitching staff is a little shorthanded this season. To date only two chuckers have reported. They are Jack Gottschang and Bill Payne.

On the receiving end of the battery are three contenders for starting berths. These include Kelly, Marcucci, and Wilson.

Both Kelly and Marcucci have showed well in recent practices. Lanyon pointed out that where two good hitters are out for the same position, one may be moved to another spot so that his hitting power may be utilized.

State's infield will be composed almost entirely of veterans. Holding down the initial sack will be George Wehner. Second base will be handled by Cy Taylor. John Urzi is slated for the "hot corner". Urzi, Taylor, and Wehner are all back from last season, as is Angelo Colombo, shortstop.

Colombo has not had much practice yet, but he was one of the leading hitters last year. Other prospects for shortstop are Duran and McElligott.

"We're still not sure about the infield," said Lanyon, "but two boys stand out. They are Arden Ardiaz and Vic Cerro. Both can hit and field quite well."

Spartan Babes Capture Fifth Straight Game

Stretching their win streak to five straight, San Jose's frosh hoopsters copped a pair of victories over the weekend when they tripped Bellarmine high 26 to 12 and Santa Clara high 26 to 20 in the preliminaries to the varsity games with Nevada Friday and Saturday nights.

In the Bellarmine tilt, the visitors scored first, and appeared to be on the road to victory until the frosh found their eye and moved into an 11 to 8 lead at halftime.

In the second half the locals tightened their defense and did not allow Bellarmine to score any more points until the last minute, when they caged two baskets to bring their total score to 12. In the meantime Coach Bill Perry cleaned his bench of substitutes while they went on to win easily. Pierre Martinet led the scoring column with seven markers.

The victory over Santa Clara was the third for the freshmen this season and was just as close as the past two contests. The yearlings took the lead at the first of the tilt, and held it throughout with Jimmy Johnson leading the onslaught with a total of eight digits.

The Panthers pulled to within four points in the closing minutes but a beautiful long shot by Johnny Popovich, new transfer from San Jose high, put the game on ice.

Mather Field Fighters Battle Spartan Boxers At Sacramento On Thursday

San Jose's boxing team, hotter than one of Hitler's harangues, after its sensational victory over Stanford last week, has another opponent lined up for this Thursday or Friday, the match to be held in Sacramento.

Mather Field's Army aggregation has just notified Sparta's punch professor, Brenton Riley, that it will accept his challenge for a match on that date.

This note of consent couldn't have come at a better time, either. Riley's boys, right on top of the highest peak—as far as physical shape is concerned, seemed to be due for a two or three-week layoff, which wouldn't have done them any good.

But now everything is looking up, and Riley can stop chewing his fingernails.

Nothing much is known about the soldier fighters, but if there was a betting mart operating for the event, they would probably be the underdogs. The showing put on by State against the Indians puts them definitely in the top ranks of college boxing teams.

One thing is sure, however, the Mather Field bunch is going to be rugged. They may not have the experience, or the ring knowledge—but they'll be able to give out and take plenty of punishment.

Women To Hear WAVES, Nurses

were completed by Chief Yeoman Pat Peabody, who visited the college, and Miss Dimmick, last Tuesday morning.

The success of women volunteer auxiliary corps in the Navy has warranted doubling of the original quotas of enlistees, officials declared. Many fields of work are desired for women workers in the Navy, so women workers have a multitude of opportunities to fulfill their vocational desires.

Universities in the midwest are being used for training centers to prepare women reserves for duty at Navy and Coast Guard bases. Women Naval workers are kept within the bounds of continental United States.

Eligibility requirements for application include birth certificates, college or high school transcripts, and a statement of employer's release. Applicants for the Nurses' Corps must be registered nurses between 21 and 40 years of age. They must be single or legally separated from their husbands.

Women desiring admittance in the WAVES should be between the ages of 20 and 36, with a minimum of two years' high school or business college education. Officers must be college graduates between 20 and 50 years of age.

Typists, stenographers, radio operators, and clerks are desired by the various branches of the Navy Reserves. Women with special training may apply for training as pharmacists' mates, dietitians, parachute riggers, aviation and machinists' mates, and electricians' helpers.

Student Council

There will be a closed Student Council meeting in the Student Union at 7 o'clock tonight, announced President Tom Taylor yesterday. Main business will consist of choosing a new council member to take the place of Bob Jennings, who resigned last week.

Jennings is the third councilor to be replaced. Last quarter Denny Morrissey, who was inducted, was replaced by Arthur Inman. Margie Behrman took over Mary Virginia Bristow's office for this quarter because the latter is doing her student-teaching.

Alpha Phi Omega: There will be a meeting tonight at 8:00 sharp at the hut. Everyone must be there on time.

Life in the WAAC

Some questions and answers of interest to every patriotic college woman

The drilling sounds so strenuous—?

Nonsense! The most beautiful women in America today are the girls in khaki! Some calisthenics and drilling are vital to general good health, discipline and tuned-up reflexes. After a few weeks at Fort Des Moines, Daytona Beach or the new Fort Oglethorpe training center you'll feel better than ever in your life.

Maybe I wouldn't like the work?

People are happiest doing what they do well. Every effort is made to place you where your service will count most toward final Victory. You may have some latent talent that will fill a particular need for work interesting and new to women—such as repairing the famous secret bombsight, rigging parachutes, operating the fascinating new electronic devices—or driving an Army jeep over foreign terrain.

Then I have a chance to learn something new?

Yes, indeed. And the list of WAAC duties grows constantly. The training and experience you get in the WAAC may equip you for many stimulating new careers opening up for women.

What are my chances of promotion?

Excellent. The Corps is expanding rapidly and needs new officers, both commissioned and noncommissioned. Those who join now have the best chances. All new officers now come up through the ranks. If qualified, you may obtain a commission in 12 weeks after beginning basic training.

What is the age range and other requirements?

Very simple. You may join if you are a U. S. citizen, aged 21 to 44, inclusive, at least 5 feet tall and not over 6 feet, in good health—regardless of race, color or creed. But the Army needs you now—don't delay. Total War won't wait!

Linguists needed. If you speak and write Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, French, German or Italian, see your local Army recruiting office now! You are needed for interpreting, cryptography, communications.

First of all, is the WAAC really needed?

Emphatically yes! Already the President has authorized the Corps to expand from 25,000 to 150,000. The Air Forces and Signal Corps have asked for thousands of WAAC members to help with vital duties. Both Ground Forces and Services of Supply are asking for thousands more. Members of the WAAC may be assigned to duty with the Army anywhere—some are already in Africa and England.

Can the WAAC really help win the war?

The whole idea of the WAAC is to replace trained soldiers needed at the front. If American women pitch in now to help our Army (as women in Britain, Russia and China do), we can hasten Victory—and peace.

What can my college education contribute?

College training is important equipment for many WAAC duties too long to list. Cryptography, drafting, meteorology, laboratory work, Link trainer and glider instructing, for example. If you are a senior you may enroll at once and be placed on inactive duty until the school year ends. See your WAAC faculty adviser for more details.

But can I live comfortably on WAAC pay?

There are few civilian jobs in which you could earn clear income, as WAAC enrolled members do, of $50 to $138 a month—with all equipment from your toothbrush to clothing, food, quarters, medical and dental care provided. WAAC officers earn from $150 to $333.33 a month.
